

LEILA FROST

FREE

Two Orchestra Seats to POLI'S THEATER

For George Broadhurst's New Play

"What Could the Poor Girl Do?"

A hilarious farce by Mark Swan, author of "She Walked In Her Sleep" and "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath." The cast of Broadway favorites is headed by Ernest Truex, of "Very Good Eddie" and "The Very Idea" fame.

Will Be Given Away Absolutely Free
Tomorrow, Monday, With Every Purchase of

FREE

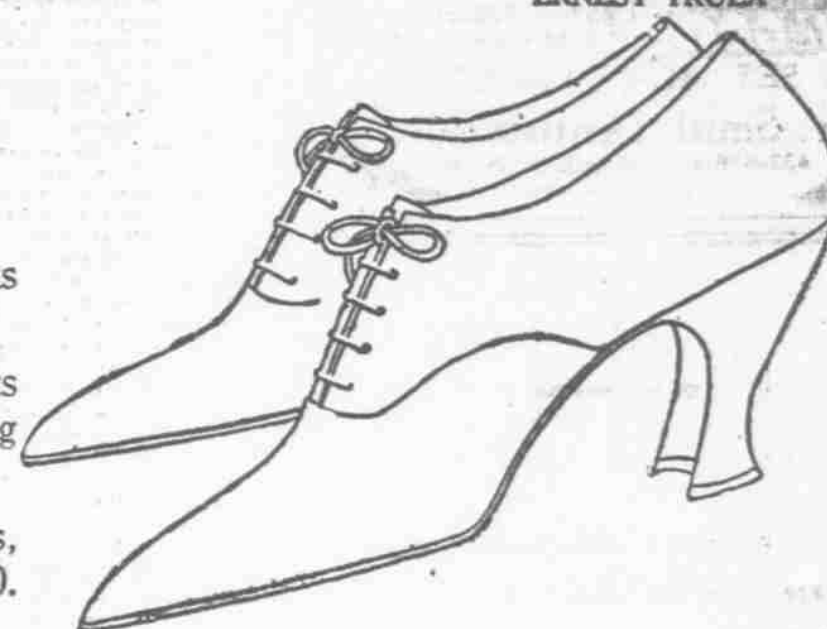

ERNEST TRUEX

LA FRANCE SHOES

Here's your chance to purchase your summer shoe needs and receive free of charge two of the best orchestra seats at Poli's Theater for any day next week during the showing of that extremely funny farce "What Could the Poor Girl Do."

Every woman in Washington should take advantage of the offer. We do not have to go into detail about the merits of that nationally famous La France footwear, because every woman that has worn a pair knows the superior wearing qualities of this footwear.

Come in tomorrow and purchase a pair of La France Shoes, Oxfords, or Pumps, choice of any of the new leathers, or of white canvas or reigskin cloth, and receive ABSOLUTELY FREE two of the best seats to Poli's Theater, worth $4.00.

La France Low Shoes Are Priced From $5.00 to $8.00

813 Penna. Ave.

Berberich's

Washington's Largest and Most Progressive Shoe Store
Established 1868

1116-1122 7th St.